
Kenneth M. Rome

Executive Director, Force Generation Operations, Plans, Logistics & Engineering Directorate U. S. Joint Forces Command

Mr. Rome serves as the Executive Director Force Generation, U. S. Joint Forces Command (USJFCOM). He is responsible for overseeing USJFCOM's execution of the conventional joint force provider mission within the Global Force Management process.

Mr. Rome entered the Senior Executive Service in September, 2008. From January 2007 to September 2008 he served as a Deputy Director (GS-15) within USJFCOM's Operations, Plans, Logistics and Engineering Directorate, responsible for force readiness and availability analysis, and the development of recommended force sourcing solutions to meet combatant command requirements. He served as USJFCOM's Joint Deployment Operations Division Chief (J33) from March 2004 until December 2006.

During Mr. Rome's service with the U.S. Navy from 1979 to 2006 he served primarily in sea assignments including command of Amphibious Squadron Eight and USS Tortuga. He participated in many significant operations including Enduring Freedom, Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Eastern Exit and Uphold Democracy. His significant shore assignments included Assistant Chief of Staff for Requirements and Assessments (N8) to Commander Naval Surface Forces, Atlantic, and Executive Officer, Surface Warfare Officers School Command. He retired from the Navy in December 2006 as a Captain.

Mr. Rome graduated from the University of Texas in 1979 with a bachelor's of science in geology. He received a master's of arts degree (with distinction) in national security and strategic studies from the Naval War College in 1992.

Mr. Rome has received the Defense Superior Service Medal, 2006; the Legion of Merit, 2003, 2002; and the Meritorious Service Medal, 2001, 1999, 1996, 1995.